NAZDAR SOURCEONE BECOMES NATIONWIDE DISTRIBUTOR FOR M&R PRINTING EQUIPMENT, INC.

Nazdar SourceOne + M&R announce their expanded distribution partnership in the United States.

Shawnee, KS - Nazdar SourceOne, a division of Nazdar Company, is proud to announce that it is now a nationwide distributor for M&R, a leading textile printing equipment manufacturer. This partnership marks a significant milestone in the long-standing relationship between Nazdar SourceOne and M&R, which has spanned over 30 years.

M&R Printing Equipment, Inc. recently celebrated 40 years of excellence in the textile equipment manufacturing industry. Their trusted blue equipment has become a staple in the industry and is known for its reliability and innovation. Nazdar has a long-standing history in the apparel decoration market and over 100 years of manufacturing inks for the printing industry. Their knowledgeable sales staff and technical expertise in digital printing will further strengthen this partnership as the textile printing industry continues to expand into digital printing. With a network of distribution locations, Nazdar SourceOne is well-positioned to provide localized inventory, superior customer service, and expert technical support to expanded markets.

Richard Bowles, President and CEO of Nazdar, commented on this exciting development: "Our partnership with M&R has been built on a foundation of trust and mutual respect over the past 30 years. This expanded partnership is a key component of our national expansion strategy. We are initially focusing on the Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Minnesota, and Wisconsin territories, where we see significant growth opportunities. By combining M&R's cutting-edge equipment with Nazdar's technical expertise and industry-leading portfolio of products, we are confident that we can help our customers achieve new levels of success."

"We are excited to deepen our collaboration with Nazdar SourceOne," said Danny Sweem, CEO of M&R Printing Equipment, Inc. "Much of M&R's success is rooted in our strategic partnerships. Our long-standing trust in Nazdar SourceOne gives us confidence that this expanded partnership will harness the combined strengths of our companies, bringing innovative technology and expert knowledge together to serve our customers nationwide successfully."

Nazdar SourceOne plans to open an additional distribution location in Texas to support customers' fulfillment needs. The new location will ensure that customers have access to M&R's industry-leading equipment and high-quality products, paired with Nazdar SourceOne's portfolio of industry-leading supplies, knowledgeable staff, and exceptional service. This collaboration exemplifies the shared commitment to innovation, quality, and customer satisfaction, along with our dedication to supporting the growth and success of textile printers nationwide.
